DAY 1-7

DAY 1: Following the tremors that shook the land, a dangerous infection has spread through the environs of the kingdom. Now, new and dangerous blooms have been observed near the dark spires of the Heartlands. Their foul powers cause even the most stalwart allies to cower in fear.

*

DAY 8

It happened so fast. The realm never recovered. An envoy was dispatched to find out what had turned against his city, and then the unthinkable. His life was promptly put in the grave. But the prince of Trenfyn held on—the kingdom's last line of defense—ever the last to fall.

*

DAYS 9-10

Following the plague of trees, the land fell into a new darkness. An army has been assembled and sent to invade from the east. But it's not an army that wears steel. It is an army that marches in slow silence, appearing as if carved out of night itself.

*

DAYS 11-12

Trapped by the ordeal before him, the Kingdom Of Trenfyn is facing obliteration. The life of his counterpart, the Kingdom Of Trull, is also in grave peril.

*

DAY 13

With no victor willing to help, the struggle must continue. That was, until the gates of the fleet prison were suddenly flung open, to free a host of unexpected prisoners.

*

DAY 14

With allies fractured, victories few, the kingdom of Trenfyn is doomed to bring the war to an end alone.

*

DAY 15

The reigns of two separate realms lie in ashes. Their fates, however, remained unknown.
